Your child's privacy

Yapton Free Church takes your child's privacy very seriously. We need to take some information about them, so that we can:

1. run the Holiday Club safely
2. contact you (or another nominated adult) in case of an emergency
3. offer them informed support, or if your child becomes ill, or needs first aid.

Data Protection legislation allows us to process this information as we regard it as being in the church's legitimate interest.

The information on the form overleaf will be held a folder on site, which will be stored in a locked box that is kept by registration in the Holiday Club marquee.

Only the church Pastor, and the Holiday Club leadership team will have access to this information.

The forms will be destroyed once Holiday Club has finished.

We will NOT pass on any information to anyone else unless there is a legitimate interest – for instance, to a doctor, first aider etc .

If you are concerned about the way we handle your child's information, please contact Jo Jeffers, admin@yaptonfreechurch.net, 01243 552232. If you are still unhappy you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioners Office. You can see Yapton Free Church's privacy policy on our website.
